DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's reply received 3/17/08 canceling all claims considered for the 10/12/07 restriction requirement has necessitated a new restriction requirement in order to clarify the record and to more clearly point out the basis for restriction.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 29-43, drawn to a method for preparing cardiomyocytes from stem cells and a first method of using cardiomyocytes for treating a heart failure condition in a patient.

Group II, claim(s) 44, drawn to a second method of using cardiomyocytes for the selection of molecules with cardiogenic modulation activity.

Group III, claim(s) 45-49, drawn to a third method of using cardiomyocytes as an in vitro cell model for cardiogenic differentiation of stem cells.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: They are not unified by a special technical feature.

An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories: (1) a product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; (2) a product and a process of use of said product; (3) a product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; (4) a process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or (5) a product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process. If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each of the other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims. See 37 C.F.R. 1.475.

In this case, no product per se is claimed. However, claims 29-38 are drawn to a process for producing cardiomyocytes by incubating stem cells with a retinoic acid ester of hyaluronic acid. Claims 39-43 recite a first process of using the cardiomyocytes that result from the method of claims 29-38. Claims 44 and 45-49 recite additional methods of using the cardiomyocytes yielded by the method of claims 29-38 and are therefore placed into separate Groups.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Mammals: (a) humans, (b) primates, (c) higher primates, (d) rodents, (e) swine, and (f) bovines, as in claim 36; elect ONE if Group I is elected.

Heart failures: (g) cardiomyopathy and (h) myocardial infarction, as in claims 42 and 43; elect ONE if Group I is elected.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: Claims 29-35, 37-41, and 44-49.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because they are not art-recognized equivalents for each other based on the information on the record. The mammals in species (a)-(f) are not art-recognized equivalents. The conditions in species (g) and (h) are distinct because they affect different patient sets and are characterized by different symptoms.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
